United Way wants to connect you to your dream job

Waterloo (November 22, 2010) – Have you ever dreamed of being a star on Broadway? Your dreams could come true! United Way Kitchener Waterloo and Area will host a Dream Job Auction this week offering nine dream careers for a day.

Drayton Entertainment donated a walk on appearance during the run of the side splitting comedy whodunit “Shear Madness” scheduled for the St.Jacobs Country Playhouse. “We have so many careers for a day available such as, a food critique, a cake boss or even a police chief for a day!” says Lisa Drew United Way’s Campaign Chair who has been busy organizing this event.

Visit United Way KW’s website www.uwaykw.org to check out the Dream Job Auction items. You can place bids by calling 519-888-6100 ext. 293 beginning Wednesday morning. The bids will close on Thursday afternoon at 4:00pm when the final bidders will be announced. You can track the bids by following United Way on Twitter @UnitedWayKW or on their website.

United Way of Kitchener Waterloo and Area is committed to improving the quality of life for all who live here by building on community resources. Working with the five priorities identified by our community as areas of focus, we will continue to ensure funds and resources are intentionally targeted to the places where they are needed most and where they can have the greatest impact.
